

Job Posting Policies

All job listings are posted at the discretion of UCO Career Services. UCO Career Services abides by the principles set forth by NACE and expects employers who use its services to adhere to EEO guidelines.

Job postings appearing to discriminate against applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, age, national origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or gender will not be approved. UCO Career Services also reserves the right to refuse to post jobs that do not support the interests of The University of Central Oklahoma.

The following job types will not be allowed:

No compromising positions such as adult entertainment, escort services, presentation modeling, or similar activities

No positions that pay for work in cash

No jobs/internship that require out of pocket expense from the student (other than transportation)

No jobs/internships that discriminate against designated groups

No positions soliciting the donation of plasma, reproductive gamete, or other organ donation
